God has His scheme of redemption, but Satan has his scheme of destruction. Who will be the next one to be destroyed? Will it be you, your family, your friends? Most people don't know about their demise until they die. Then they realize they have been deceived, not just by Satan, but by their pastor, or reverend, or priest, or preacher. This does not have to be you! Survival is possible, but you must follow Kristian's journey as he follows God. You can pray for wisdom and read the word of God for understanding. Kristian's prayer is answered, but not in the way he expected, because now he is a sacrificial pawn in this ageless chess match between the supernatural gods. He was born in the ghetto just before King was assassinated, and if that wasn't enough, his unchurched father named him Kristian. Thirty years later the challenges keep coming. If Satan's abode is on earth, then Kristian is dwelling in his habitation. However, his ultimate challenge leads to what he never imagined possible. Moreover, the depths of devilish destruction Kristian could not fathom, nor the heights of divine deliverance could he measure. He is thrust into the hordes of a hidden hellish domain, not just with the diabolical demons whose mission is misery, nor just with the angelic cohorts whose allegiance is eternal, but also with the illustrious Lucifer whose lot in life is to destroy every man, woman, and child. This vicious lion on the prowl of destruction confronts Kristian with emotional terrorism to shatter his faith, crush his heart, and dismantle his ministry.
