The first time was her freshman year of college. She was a young, idealistic and carefree student with wish visions of making the world a better place. That was until her idealism was shattered when she lost someone she dearly loved in one of the world s most deadly acts of terrorism. The second time was when the US security was shaken to the core by the deadly attack on New York City and the Pentagon on 9/11. Jenson was an ambitious young lawyer working for the Governor of Virginia when a plane flew into the Pentagon. She and the Governor barely made it out of Washington DC alive. The third time Jenson finds herself behind enemy lines working as an clandestine services operative for the CIA as she infiltrates an ISIS terror cell. Her mission is to take down the top leadership of the cell in Iraq. To uncover the stunning truth she must use her gifts and the wounds that she carries. Forced to risk it all, Jenson makes the ultimate sacrifice. Now, pulled from the wreckage Jenson embarks on a journey of discovery. A discovery of the woman she lost, on an ancient pilgrimage through Spain. Far away from the perils of her work she seeks to escape the memories that she must endure. While on her journey she uncovers a terror plot that could have lasting implications not only for the country of Spain, but the world. In search of redemption, Jenson seizes the opportunity to try and prevent the attack before its too late.
