By Lynne Cox

Houghton Mifflin Harcourt Publishing Company. Paperback.
 Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Grayson, Lynne Cox, The true story of a miraculous encounter between a teenaged girl and a baby whale off the coast of California. It was the dark of early morning; seventeen-year-old Lynne Cox was swimming her last half mile back to the pier after a long workout when she became aware that something was swimming with her. The ocean was charged with energy as if a squall was moving in; whatever it was felt large enough to be a white shark coursing beneath her body. In fact, it was a baby gray whale. Lynne quickly realized that if she swam back to the pier, the young calf would follow her to shore and die from collapsed lungs. On the other hand, if Lynne didn't find the mother whale, the baby would suffer from dehydration and starve to death. Something so enormous the mother whale would be at least fifty feet long suddenly seemed very small in the vast Pacific Ocean. This is the story part mystery, part magical tale of what happened.".
