Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Uniform Contracts and Cost Accounting Definitions and Methods: Recommendations by Interdepartmental Conference, Consisting of Delegates From the Department of War, Navy, and Commerce, the Federal Trade Commission, and the Council of National Defence, July, 1917 These recommendations are intended to suggest to contracting officers some of the broad legal and equitable points involved in war contracts, and to express the preference of the conference for a straight purchase-and-sale contract at a fixed price, since it is simpler in terms, easier to work under, and generally speaking, productive of better and quicker results. The British Government, after several years experience, has discarded the cost-plus contract plan and adopted the straight purchase-and-sale contract in every instance possible. It is not proposed to go into the large question of policy involved in attempting to prevent demoralization of markets by excessive competition. Suffice it to say, that the Government can furnish material and component parts under either a fixed-price or a cost-plus contract, and thus protect market conditions by purchases in bulk. Recommendations and brief discussion follow: I. It is recommended that, in every instance where fair terms can be obtained, contracts should be in the form of straight purchase-and-sale contracts at fixed prices. In the determination of fair terms for fixed price contracts, the contractor, in so far as possible, should be required to state the cost and other factors upon which his price is based; such representations to be the subject of investigation by the contracting officer prior to the final execution of the contract, and if found to be incorrect, the price to be adjusted accordingly. What constitutes fair terms can be arrived at only by...
