Its the last straw for Rosie Rae when she finds out her fiance, Greg, is cheating on her. Again. They were supposed to be married on Christmas Eve. Shes through with him, for good, this time. To avoid all possibility of being sweet-talked into taking him back, she flees Hollywood and heads for the wilds of Vermont to spend the Holidays at the New Columbia Inn, a replica of the hotel in Irving Berlins White Christmas. Its Rosies all-time favorite movie. Last Christmas Eve Mark Mason found out his wife, Mahri, had died in a car accident. The driver was his best friend, Brad. They were having an affair and she was carrying his baby. The last year had been rough on Mark, mourning his wife and nursing Brad back to health. But when Brad tells him hes fine now and he can get on with his life again, Mark knows he cannot return home to all those memories. He puts his house on the market and heads to the New Columbia Inn, Vermont. Irving Berlins White Christmas is his very favorite film. When Mark and Rosie meet, they are instantly drawn to each other. But Greg wants Rosie back and hes not giving her up without a fight. Just how far will he go to get her back A Christmas Contemporary Romance Novella of approximately 31, 000 words.
