Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Primary Reading, Vol. 10: A Teacher s Manual to Accompany the Use of the State Series Texts This Bulletin is an attempt to help teachers use the State Series Primer, First Reader and Second Reader. State Series readers are ordinarily used for supplemental purposes, chiefly because the method that has been adopted involves the use of some other book as a basal reader. This Bulletin sets forth a method which makes possible the use of the State Series Primer, First Reader and Second Reader as basal books. The method presented in Part I is eclectic in its character. It seeks to combine in simple ways the best practices of successful teachers. Throughout, the needs of the average classroom have been uppermost in mind and a conscious effort has been made to avoid complex and overelaborate methods. A phonics basis is provided for all textbook study. The use of the text follows the story method. Sight words are drilled upon before the lessons in which they occur. Dramatizations, flash-cards, charts, blackboard devices and plans for seat work are all included. The flash-cards for class use contain a complete set of consonants and blends, and all families of the Primer, First Reader and Second Reader. Small cards in sheets of 20 cards each for individual or seat work are provided, the set being composed of the same phonic elements as class flash-cards. The sheets are cut up into cards, each pupil being given a card as a new element is taught. Envelopes are included. The charts are five in number. Number I is composed of consonants, blends and endings. Numbers II, III, IV and V, all families...
