

Book of Old-Time Trades and Tools

By -

Dover Publications. Paperback. Book Condition: New.
Paperback. 320 pages. Dimensions: 7.8in. x 5.4in. x 0.9in. Originally written as an aid for boys seeking information about prospective trades and occupations available to them as adults, this profusely illustrated and instructive text also stresses the importance, dignity, and techniques of labor. First published during the mid-Victorian era, it is today a charming window on the past, offering glimpses of basic crafts and industries of the period. In addition to detailing the work of tailors, shoemakers, bakers, plumbers, and housepainters, the text devotes full chapters to the work of bricklayers, cabinet- and gun-makers, sugar refiners, coppersmiths, calico printers, millers, and twenty-one other tradespeople. With facts and hints for modern craftworkers and fascinating background for anyone interested in bygone ways of life, this rare primer will be treasured not only by cultural historians and hobbyists, but will also delight collectors and Americana enthusiasts. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
