Excerpt: . . . at Ionia, the county seat, but for years has been located at Saranac, where, in addition to his law practice, he has been actively engaged in the real-estate business. Judge Wilson is a Democrat and has been honored by election to various public offices, having served his home township as clerk and as justice of the peace and the county as prosecuting attorney and judge of probate. During his professional career, Judge Wilson has been associated, as a partner, with the law firms of Wilson and Strickland, Vosper and Wilson and Morse, Wilson and Trowbridge, the latter firm continuing until the election of Judge Morse as justice of the Michigan supreme court. Judge Wilson is a Royal Arch Mason and a Knight Templar, for several years master of Boston lodge, and is a member of the chapter and the commandery at Ionia. His law practice in recent years has chiefly been confined to office work and probate practice. He has long given earnest attention to the general business affairs of his home community and is one of the directors of the Saranac State Bank. OTIS D. TYLER. Another general farmer of Ionia county who is making a specialty of raising some fine grade of live stock is Otis D. Tyler, of Orange township, and he is making a success of each department. He was born in the home in which he now lives, September 28, 1862, and is a son of Isaac E. and...
